Speakers: Bio & Contact Information

Robert A. Martin, CPA, MBA
Coordinator, Undergraduate Accounting Programs and Senior Accounting Lecturer
School of Accountancy
Kennesaw State University

Kennesaw State University
1000 Chastain Road
Mail Drop 0402
Kennesaw, GA 30144

TEL: 678.797.2007
FAX: 770.499.3420
rmartin@kennesaw.edu

Robert A. Martin, CPA, MBA is an Accounting Lecturer in the School of Accountancy at Kennesaw State University. He has taught introductory financial and managerial accounting as well as income tax and advanced managerial accounting courses for ten years as an adjunct faculty member. For 18 years, Mr. Martin has owned and managed a local CPA firm based in Woodstock, Georgia providing tax and consulting services for individuals and small businesses. Mr. Martin received his Bachelors of Science Degree from Indiana University, Bloomington and MBA degree from Kennesaw State University. He worked in the Exploration and Production Division of Marathon Oil Company in Shreveport, Louisiana for five years as an accounting supervisor. Mr. Martin is a member of the AICPA and Georgia Society of Certified Public Accountants.

Jennifer Schafer, Ph.D.
Assistant Professor
School of Accountancy
Kennesaw State University

Kennesaw State University
1000 Chastain Road
Mail Drop 0402
Kennesaw, GA

TEL: 770.423.6095
FAX: 770.499.3420
jen_schafer@kennesaw.edu

Dr. Jennifer Schafer is an assistant professor in the School of Accountancy at Kennesaw State University. Dr. Schafer’s research and teaching interests include taxation and judgment and decision making in accounting. Dr. Schafer, a Florida CPA, is a former tax manager with KPMG, LLP. She is a trustee of the American Taxation Association and a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and Accounting, Behavior and Organizations. She received her Ph.D. from the University of South Carolina and her M.Acc. and BS from the University of Florida. Dr. Schafer’s recent publications include “The Influence of Roles, Advocacy, and Rose K. Drupiewski, LLM, M.Acc.

Attorney at Law
Chamberlain, Hrdlicka, White, Williams & Martin

191 Peachtree Street, N.E.
Thirty-Fourth Floor
Atlanta, GA 30303

TEL: 404.658.5426
FAX: 404.659.1852

Rose K. Drupiewski maintains a diverse, broadly-based estate planning and estate administration practice. She works with individuals, families and organizations at every stage of the estate planning process, including drafting wills and advanced directives, restructuring family businesses, managing estates and drafting trusts. Ms. Drupiewski has handled matters ranging from hundreds of thousands of dollars to those exceeding hundreds of millions. In addition, Ms. Drupiewski has particular experience working with tax-exempt organizations, and has structured charitable trusts and family foundations. She has formed numerous private foundations and public charities, and assisted many organizations with their applications for federal and state tax exemption, as well as continuing to advise these entities with their ongoing tax compliance and business needs. Ms. Drupiewski’s most recent presentations include "Income Tax Consequences of Sales and Surrenders of Life Insurance Policies," July 2010, "Update on the Current Status of Estate and Gift Tax Laws and Planning in the Midst of Uncertainty," presented to the Cherokee Area Estate Planning Council, February 2010 and "Deductions for Claims Against the Estate: New IRS Regs Under Section 2053", a discussion of new IRS regulations affecting the value of certain estate tax deductions, January 2010. Ms. Drupiewski received her LLM, M.Acc., JD and BS from the University of Florida, B.S. cum laude. She is a member of the State Bars of Georgia, Florida, Arkansas and Tennessee and is admitted to practice in the United States Tax Court.

Kurt Schulzke, JD, M.Acc.
Attorney at Law
Associate Professor of Accounting and Business Law
School of Accountancy
Kennesaw State University

Kennesaw State University
1000 Chastain Road
Mail Drop 0402
Kennesaw, GA 30144

TEL: 770.423.6379
FAX: 770.499.3420
kschulzk@kennesaw.edu
Kurt Schulzke is Associate Professor of Accounting & Business Law at the School of Accountancy. He holds bachelors and masters degrees in accounting from Brigham Young University and a Juris Doctor from the Georgia State University College of Law. He is an alumnus of the Johannes-Kepler University-GSU Program on International Commercial Arbitration and the Harvard Program on Negotiation’s Teaching Negotiation in the Organization. He was first licensed as a CPA in 1987 and joined the Georgia State Bar in 1998. Kurt is lead co-author of World Accounting, a multi-volume Lexis-Nexis treatise on global financial reporting, has taught international accounting at KSU since 1993, and has delivered seminars on financial reporting, corporate governance, corporate ethics, family business and negotiation in major U.S., European and Latin American financial centers. He has published in the American Business Law Journal, Journal of Forensic Accounting and the Journal of Executive Education. Prior to joining the Coles College faculty in 1990, Kurt worked for four years as an auditor and tax consultant at Price Waterhouse in Atlanta. He has served family-owned businesses as a board member, CFO, and general counsel. As an attorney, he serves whistleblower, corporate and tax clients. He blogs on law and financial reporting issues at The Schulzke Brief. Mr. Schulzke is a sponsoring member of Taxpayers Against Fraud (http://taf.org) and represents clients in whistleblower cases.

Bruce Clements, Ph.D., Esq., CPA
Attorney at Law
Associate Professor
School of Accountancy
Kennesaw State University

Kennesaw State University
1000 Chastain Road
Mail Drop 0402
Kennesaw, GA 30144

TEL: 770.423.6090
FAX: 770.499.3420
aclement@kennesaw.edu

Dr. Bruce Clements is an associate professor of accounting and taxation in Kennesaw State University’s School of Accountancy. Dr. Clements teaching interests include accounting, taxation and business valuation in the Coles College. Bruce is a practicing attorney and certified public accountant, and specializes in legal, tax and business issues affecting small business and individuals, including business planning and business valuation. His research interests include tax planning and compliance issues impacting businesses and legal issues impacting the valuation of closely held businesses. Bruce received his Ph.D., M.B.A. and B.S. from the Warrington College of Business at the University of Florida, and his J.D. from the Georgia State University College of Law. Prior to joining the faculty at Kennesaw State University, Bruce served on the faculty at the JM Tull School of Accounting at the University of Georgia and worked with Deloitte Haskins + Sells in the Atlanta, GA office. He is a member of board and past president of the Georgia Society of CPAs, North Atlanta Chapter, a member of the State Bars of Georgia, Florida and Alabama, and is a Certified Public Accountant in Georgia. His most recent publications include Taxation of Gains and Losses on Sales of New York Subsidiary Stock (CPA Journal) and Modern Financial Modeling, dedicated to advanced business modeling concepts in Microsoft Excel. Bruce speaks professionally in matters of accounting, taxation and business law.