President's Message

New location! Our next meeting will be on Tuesday, July 21, 2009 at the Buckhead Club located in the Sovereign Building. Information about the Buckhead Club (including directions and maps) can be found here. Note that the cost of the meeting is $25 which includes complimentary parking (either valet or self parking).

The topic of the July meeting is "Loan Workouts and Debt Restructuring in Today's Economy." Our speakers will be Tim Pollock and Charles Beaudrot from Morris, Manning, & Martin. I encourage you to invite some friends to attend.

I just returned from the GSCPA Annual Convention. I am pleased to announce that all ballot measures passed with over 90 percent approving the changes. One of these measures changed the bylaws to allow Chapters to merge. Based on this vote, the merger of the Atlanta and Buckhead Chapters will soon be finalized. Many thanks to all those who worked hard to make this happen.

As always, we invite you to give us feedback on how we are doing. We are also interested in mentoring additional leaders who would like to join our management team. We'll be happy to help you find a position to best achieve your goals.

Regards,

Michael Broughton
Atlanta Chapter President

Speaker's Biographies

Timothy S. Pollock

Timothy S. Pollock is a partner with more than 25 years of experience in the firm's Tax, Real Estate and Real Estate Capital Markets Practices. Before pursuing his legal education, Mr. Pollock practiced as a Certified Public Accountant with Arthur Young, which later merged with Ernst & Whinney to become the accounting firm of Ernst & Young. Mr. Pollock practices primarily in the areas of real estate finance and taxation, general taxation, general business transactions and estate planning. A large portion of his practice focuses on real estate ownership structures, tax issues associated with real estate transactions, partnership agreements and operating agreements documenting equity investments in real estate, and private fund syndications raising capital for real estate investments. Mr. Pollock has written several tax articles and speaks regularly on tax topics for national organizations that sponsor educational seminars. In addition, he participated in the Georgia Limited Liability Company and Limited Liability Partnership legislative drafting committees.

Charles R. Beaudrot, Jr.

Charles R. Beaudrot, Jr. is a senior partner in the firm's Tax Practice. Mr. Beaudrot's areas of practice include corporate and partnership tax, transactional tax planning, state and local tax planning and tax controversy work. He is also a partner in the real estate capital markets group and advises clients with respect to tax issues involving real estate partnerships, real estate investment trusts and their related umbrella partnerships and tax efficient strategies for corporate owned real estate. Mr. Beaudrot is a frequent speaker on tax, partnership and corporate topics for numerous sponsors such as the Georgia Society of Certified Public Accountants, the Institute for Continuing Legal Education in Georgia and the Georgia Real Estate Tax Conference.
