President's Message

We have a very special meeting coming up April 22, 2008. Everyone should be rested up after busy season and be ready to enjoy a great meal at the Petite Auberge Restaurant. Our speaker will be Stewart Carlin, the incoming president of the Georgia Society of CPAs. This will be a unique opportunity to be one of the first chapters to hear our upcoming president speak. He is a practicing CPA, and he should be able to relate to the needs of the DeKalb Chapter.

April 22 will be a special meeting, also, because it is student night. The scholarship committee will be presenting scholarships to three deserving students. The scholarship committee included Joe Patterson, Diane Futch and Katherine Wilson. They met April 1 and selected three students out of twenty applicants. We appreciate the work of the committee to make the selections on such short notice.

Please join us for a time of good fellowship and good food and learn how the GSCPA is providing opportunities for your success.
