President's Message

During this tax season, the workloads for many of our members are escalating. As our special event, I am pleased to announce that the board and officers of the chapter have designated that there will be no charge for our next meeting on Tuesday, February 24. You won't want to miss this educational and informative meeting. Our speaker will be Carlton Collins; details of his presentation are described below.

Technology Tips

In this session, you will receive Carlton's top technology tips that you can use to save money, save time, and improve system performance. This session will include tips for configuring Windows, browsing the Internet, operating Excel, using Word, configuring Outlook, purchasing hardware, implementing systems, printing, security, remote communications, software drivers, data organization, printers, computers, laptops, servers, cell phones, web sites, Internet tools, utilities, scanners, optical mice, handheld devices, productivity software, operating systems, accounting software, email applications, and browsers. This session will also include an overview of some of the newest hot productivity products on the market today.

Scholarships

The DeKalb Chapter will be awarding scholarships to qualified accounting students at the April meeting. Please click here for the application and the qualifications. The application must be received by March 31, 2009. If you have any questions, please contact Diane Futch at 404-243-8096 or Dharma Diaz-Azcuy at 770-512-0500.
