President's Message

The September 25, 2007, meeting was a combined meeting of the DeKalb Chapter and the Gwinnett Chapter. David Robertson of Robertson and Gable, LLC, Corporation Attorneys, was our speaker, and he shared some very useful information about incorporating and transferring corporations from other states to Georgia. Thanks to all that attended.

Jim Martin, partner in the firm of Martin & Orr, LLC, will be speaking at our October meeting. His presentation will be a two hour A&A compilation and review update. This is a great opportunity to get two hours of A&A CPE, and get the latest information on compilation and review. This is a special meeting that you do not want to miss.

Jim Martin will also be the speaker at our eight hour A&A update CPE seminar on December 15, 2007. Jim is a frequent speaker at many state societies on a variety of A&A topics. He is an interesting speaker with unique presentation that holds your attention. He incorporates humor and many practical examples in his lecture.
