HIGHLIGHTS!

Mark your calendars for a great night of A&A at our August 16 meeting of the North Atlanta Chapter! Our speakers for the evening will be Mr. Alan L. Grothe, C.P.A., presenting his annual Compilation and Review Update, and Dr. A. Bruce Clements, Esq., C.P.A., speaking on Accountants Duties Under the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act.

- Alan L. Grothe is a CPA and partner in a Marietta, GA based practice and long time contributor, board member and speaker with the North Atlanta Chapter. Alan’s topic is timely and important, given the significant number of compilations and reviews performed by CPAs in their daily practice and the potential liability issues faced by accountants in this area.
- Bruce Clements is an associate professor of accounting at Kennesaw State University and a practicing attorney and CPA, specializing in financial inquiry and investigations, including financial statement fraud and due diligence related issues. Bruce’s topic will focus on the important link between accountants and the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act of 1977, which is more relevant than ever in the current global business environment.
