President's Message

Although summer vacation is in full swing, our June meeting was very well attended. Our speaker Hale E. Sheppard of Chamberlain, Hrdlicka had a very interesting and timely message for all tax preparers. Additionally, the two KSU students who won our chapter's annual scholarship awards attended to offer their thanks.

Please take note in our "Line-up" of upcoming events at the bottom of this newsletter that we have scheduled our annual A&A Seminar worth 8 hours of A&A for Saturday October 10, 2009, at Kennesaw State University. The price for our Chapter members is $130 and for non-chapter members is $150. The price covers the all day session which will include a continental breakfast, breaks and lunch. The proceeds raised from this event will be donated to the Accounting Department at Kennesaw State University. Please hold the date and let your colleagues know. A detailed Agenda will be available soon. We offer a special thanks to Doyle Williams and Bruce Clements for their hard work to make this event happen.

Please take note that the Chapter's traditional email address was compromised by a spammer last week and will not be used to sign up for this month's meeting. The new email address is below. If you have already used the chapter website or traditional email address please take a minute to sign up again as it may have gone to the compromised address which is no longer in use.

If you are in town, please join us for our July meeting, which is worth 2 hours of A&A. Our topic will be:

"XBRL"

Our July speaker, Ernest Capozzoli has extensive corporate experience with such companies as Olin Corporation, Kaiser Aluminum and Saudi Aramco (Arabian American Oil Company).
