President's Message

Dear Members:

If you missed our October 2007 meeting on Tuesday night, you truly missed out. We had delicious food at Cedar River in Vidalia, a new meeting place for us that was quite impressive. The program consisted of a wonderful talk by Paula Mooney, president of the GSCPA. She highlighted the three P's of our profession and the important roles we have as CPAs. While speaking about financial literacy, Paula shared that the average American spends $1.22 for each dollar they earn, amazing and scary. We had nineteen members present. During the social, we found out that one of our members just turned 45 and another one of our members needed to go shopping! We had one suggestion in the suggestion box, so that member received the suggestion door prize. Please remember to bring your suggestion next time.

Sincerely yours,

Jill Boykin
Southeast Georgia Chapter President

Chapter Meeting

Our next meeting will be November 8, at The Historic Statesboro Inn, downtown Statesboro. Dr. Tom Buckhoff will be speaking on Forensic Accounting, and if you haven't heard him speak, you will find he is very knowledgeable and interesting. We are looking forward to a big turnout. Please be sure to come and network with each other and our local bankers and attorneys.

We will have a reception from 6 - 7 p.m., and our program will be from 7 - 8 p.m. Please come. I would love to see and meet all of you.

Reservations: Please call Jill Boykin at (912) 486-1702. In order to make the appropriate accommodations, please notify me by: 11:00 a.m. Friday, October 25, 2007.

Cost: Members: $25
Students: $20
