President's Message

Dear Members:

Our September meeting was a great way to kick off our chapter's 2007-2008 year. We had 23 members at The Beaver House to share good fellowship and a delicious meal. The weather was beautiful, so we had the social part of our meeting outdoors on the porch. Our speaker, Debbie Rodkin, provided excellent information on Cost Segregation and how we could save our clients money. She was a wonderful speaker and was very energetic. If you missed the meeting or would like further information, please email her at drodkin@bedfordcap.com. We didn't have any suggestions in the suggestion box last meeting, so the door prize was held over. Any comments or suggestions are appreciated, so think of one to bring next time.

Be sure to mark your calendar for Banker's and Attorney's night, November 8. We have changed the location to The Historic Statesboro Inn, downtown Statesboro. Dr. Tom Buckhoff will be speaking on Forensic Accounting. You won't want to miss this event. It gives us an opportunity to network with attorneys and bankers and Tom is an amazing speaker.

Sincerely yours,

Jill Boykin
Southeast Georgia Chapter President
