

The Georgia Society of CPAs

Seeking Qualified Candidates for 2021-2022 GSCPA Advisory Councils
- Deadline: July 30 -

The Georgia Society of CPAs is seeking qualified candidates to apply for appointment as Advisory Council members for the 2021-2022 year. GSCPA Advisory Council members are asked to share their expertise in an advisory group setting regarding a particular subject matter. GSCPA Advisory Councils will act as “Think Tanks” or “Thought Leadership Groups” to ensure GSCPA is keeping its members informed of the latest trends and most pressing topics affecting a particular segment of the CPA profession.

If you are interested in joining one of the Advisory Councils, please complete the attached form. Include information about your professional experience and GSCPA involvement. Feel free to attach your resume or biography as well (optional). Please return the form to Manager, Member Relations, Colleen McGlade by July 30.

The goals of Advisory Councils are to:

- Make the membership aware of important issues pertaining to particular areas of knowledge.
- Advise on content, analysis, thought leadership and resources for the membership at-large.
- Maintain focus on providing information, content and news alerts that benefit the membership statewide.

Makeup of the Advisory Councils:

- Six to eight members appointed for one year by the Chair of the Board of Directors.
- Advisory Council members are considered experts in their particular area of the profession.
- Advisory Councils are subject to the volunteer policies of the Society and are subject to removal by the Chair of the Board.

Qualifications for Advisory Council members:

- Must be a fellow member in good standing with the Society.

Time commitment:

- Meet in person or virtually twice per year for approximately two hours.
- Members are encouraged to provide pertinent information and news alerts throughout the year.
